

Partie pratique 1

- Je sais organiser le bloc-notes, créer des sections et des pages
